About Pilot

"The people are what makes Pilot unique, not the sign out the front."

Cameron

"I love the people, team mentality, no one is left out. The culture is supportive and encouraging. A good sense of work life balance where we are encouraged to work hard, but not be overworked."

Andrea

Culture

Our staff tell us that the best thing about Pilot is the people. We are proud of our culture, the way we operate and the opportunities our people have to learn and grow.

*"My first impression of Pilot was that it was a friendly and relaxed work environment. When I started working, I found out my impression was correct."
Kylee*

"The people here are lovely. They make you feel very welcome, they help you with anything you need. The training has been great, and the work interesting. I am excited every morning to come to work, and I love it."

Courtney

- We are more than just accountants – we are problem solvers and encourage fresh ideas.
- Relationships are everything to us. This not only includes clients, contacts and referrers, but importantly the people who are here every day.
- Our Partners encourage participation from all staff and our mentoring program gives you direct access to the Partner group.

"Friendly and supportive culture."

Shaun

"I really appreciate all the support this firm provides not just with Uni and CA, but with other support by way of professional development training which is inspiring and helpful."

Marissa

"The friendly environment has been a huge factor for me. Everyone is willing to help you with whatever issue you may have."

Adam

Lifestyle

For us, lifestyle is about a balanced approach to everything we do. You will enjoy working on varied and challenging assignments in an environment that is fun and supportive of having a life outside of the office.

"The work-life balance is great, close contact with Partners. Large variety and high quality of work with emphasis on training."

Josh

- A great balance of work, fun and lifestyle activities.
- Our philosophy is that we work with each individual to be flexible in trying to accommodate their needs and address their own personal goals and objectives.
- The Pilot Social Club is a great opportunity for Partners and staff to interact outside of the office.
- New modern offices with design input from everyone within the firm.

"I appreciated having the chance to provide real input of what I needed when we moved to the new offices, things that were important to me that I knew would make my role easier."

Tracey

Career Progression

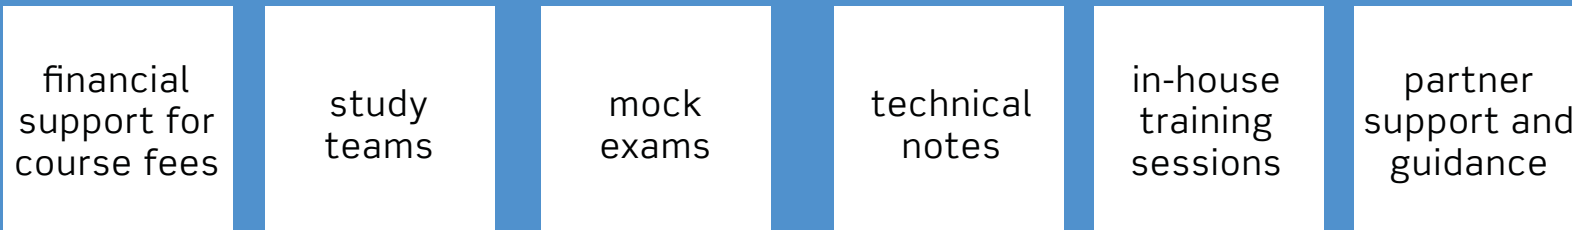

Design your own flight-path throughout your career.

"I was looking for a firm that supported my education and was interested in developing my career. In my interview, I asked what support Pilot offers for undergraduates and CA candidates and the response I received showed that Pilot would be willing to go that extra step to help me succeed in my education and provide the resources needed."

Kylee

As a Chartered Accounting firm we will support you through your studies and the CA Program. This includes:

- Regular in-house training sessions to enhance your technical and soft skills.
- Access to external training seminars and courses aimed at progressing your career development.
- Performance reviews every six months to assess your progress, career plans and development.
- Cross divisional opportunities to specialise in your chosen field, or internally transfer to something brand new.
- Global secondment opportunities through our association with NEXIA International.
