

Advisory Board Services

Owning a business can be a lonely place, with limited time to work “on” your business rather than “in” it. It doesn’t have to be this way.

An Advisory Board provides you with a trusted forum for frank discussions and a sounding board to discuss issues you identify as well as those identified by outside eyes.

How Pilot can help

An Advisory Board will bring added discipline and accountability to the business of running a business, ensuring that the strategic focus is not lost in the daily noise of business management.

Our clients who utilise these services say the advice and value from having an Advisory Board becomes evident almost immediately, helping them to think about their business through a different lens.

Pilot offers a full range of accounting and business consulting advice. In particular, our advisors can assist you and your management team with the following services:
