Our specialised services in this field are tailored to offer significant value, providing independent advice to assist finalising an estate or resolving disputes in a timely manner.

Issues and challenges

Deceased estates are often difficult to navigate, especially where the following matters are involved:

- Complex estates
- Complex corporate structures
- Establishment of testamentary trusts
- Will being challenged
- Feuding family members
- Operating or ongoing business undertakings
- Dealing with interests in property, assets or business
- Need for financial investigation
- Understanding of cashflow issues in separation of assets
- Dealing with outstanding taxation matters
- Understanding and planning taxation issues
- Reconstruction of financial records

Our services and expertise

Pilot can work hand-in-hand with a legal practitioner by:

- Undertaking valuations of complex corporate structures;
- Assisting with an orderly realisation of businesses and assets;
- Winding up corporate structures and trusts;
- Ensuring financial information is accurate and up to date and piecing together incomplete records;
- Conducting investigations of historical transactions and tracing exercises;
- Attending mediation and assist with negotiating practical outcomes; and
- Providing expert evidence in Court.

Independent Administrators and Trustees

Where independence is required to safeguard and manage estates. Our services extend to:

- Acting as an independent administrator of the estate; and
- Acting as an independent trustee of testamentary trusts particularly where there are ongoing asset management or trading operations.
